NYSBA's Lawyer Assistance Program and the Queens County Bar Association

Lawyers Helping Lawyers Volunteer Training

Wednesday, March 10, 2010
10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Queens County Bar Association
90-35 148th Street, Jamaica, NY

Developed for lawyers, this informative program will provide vital information on how to recognize and help colleagues and clients who may be suffering from addiction, depression, or other mental health issues. Participants will learn about the challenges facing the profession today, valuable insight, life changing skills, and ultimately how to effectively intervene and support those in need. Ethical implications surrounding the duty to intervene will also be discussed.

Approved for 3.5 MCLE credits in Practice Management and 2.0 MCLE credits in ethics for all attorneys, including newly admitted and experienced.
